

WAS SMOOTHED FOR THE KAISER

To Meet American Demands Without Embarrassment—Washington Is Very Hopeful of an Amicable Settlement.

Washington, June 12.—Comment by the European press on the recent American note to Germany attracted much attention in official and diplomatic quarters today. In the absence of information concerning Germany's probable attitude it was the chief subject for speculation.

throughout the negotiations, the efforts of the United States to convince Germany of the legality of the American position ultimately would be successful.

The important thing which officials thought they gleaned from the press comment and other utterances was the fact that the German government was no more desirous of adding the United States to its list of enemies than the United States was of adding Germany to its list of enemies.

An abundance of submarine warfare in the Atlantic would be a material toward a peaceful settlement, but it is not a sign of friendship.
